

MSSC Announces the arrival of a New Director

The Montana Safety Services Council is pleased to announce the hiring this month of Aaron Stulc, as the new Director of Safety Services. He will begin employment June 20th, 2011 and is excited to begin working with the MSSC member companies.

Aaron received his Bachelor of Science Degree, with a major in Chemistry, from the University of Montana and has professional training in ergonomics, industrial ventilation, blood borne pathogens, fall protection, confined spaces, excavation, safety management, hazardous communication, respiratory protection and much more.

He comes to MSSC with an extensive background in occupational health and safety, industrial hygiene, training and safety consulting. He has valuable experience with OSHA and DOT that should greatly benefit the membership when working on regulatory compliance issues.

Aaron's background in training and in designing, developing, and implementing programs to maintain occupational safety and health compliance, as well as his ability to analyze, review, evaluate and report on program effectiveness, will be a great asset to MSSC and its member companies.
